

Foster Care Association of Oklahoma, Inc.

Prospective Board of Directors Membership Biographical Sketch

Board members need to have administrative and organizational skills. Board members should be able to relate well with all types of people, cope with a variety of situations, and communicate openly. Board members must have the desire to promote and achieve the goals of the Foster Care Association of Oklahoma, Inc., which include issues relating to foster and adoptive families. Prospective board members do not have to be foster parents to serve on the board.
